4. Communism tours

After World War II, Warsaw architects were given the task of rebuilding the city in a new design style which was to be “socialist in content and national in form”. Discover the architectural heritage of socialist realism in Warsaw with a visit to the Palace of Culture and Science, which was given by Stalin as a gift from the Soviet Union to the Polish nation. Walk around Parade Square, built to host the propaganda-filled speeches of the leaders of the Polish People’s Republic, and then go to the Marszałkowska Housing District to explore Constitution Square with its impressive sculptures from the 1950s. To feel the spirit of those bygone days, pop into one of the last remaining milk bars, fast food canteens from that time, for some inexpensive, home-style, traditional Polish cooking. It’s a great opportunity to feel the unique atmosphere of places where time appears to have stood still.

“PGE Narodowy” stadium – place of positive energy

In 2018, over 2 million people visited the “PGE Narodowy” stadium. The stadium itself and the grasslands around it are open for everyone from dusk to late evening, seven days a week. The venue welcomes both those who come for concerts and sports events as those who simply want to see it, and of course those who actively go in for sports themselves.

From the day it opened, the “PGE Narodowy” stadium has enjoyed unwavering popularity thanks to a wealth of diverse events held inside. It is not only a sport arena, hosting football and volleyball matches and motor sports competitions, or a venue for concerts attracting the biggest stars, but is also a home to many free-to-attend events and workshops promoting a healthy lifestyle.

The “PGE Narodowy” stadium offers a number of tours to those who want to take a closer look, giving everyone an opportunity to feel like a true fan by checking out the stadium acoustics and entering the locker rooms where Cristiano Ronaldo and Robert Lewandowski prepared for their matches during European Championships.

Currently, the most popular tours are those developed around different themes: “Football Emotions”, “Feel like a VIP”, “A History Lesson”, “PGE Narodowy for Juniors” and “PGE Narodowy for Seniors”. “Feel like a VIP” tour is conducted in seven languages: Polish, English, Spanish, French, German, Russian and Italian.

Every tour gives you a unique opportunity to see not only the pitch and the stands up close, but also the locations normally reserved for the players of the Poland's football team. During “Feel like a VIP” tour you will also have a possibility to visit the luxurious areas of the stadium – e.g. the VIP skyboxes, and the media stands – prepared for the most important guests visiting the “PGE Narodowy” stadium. The visitors can also climb up to the Viewing Point in the upper stands from where they can admire a panoramic view of the “PGE Narodowy” stadium.

The “PGE Narodowy” stadium also organizes a number of free-to-attend events promoting active participation in sports. Very popular are inline skating workshops where experienced instructors share their practical skills with young enthusiasts of the sport. A nice crowd of people also gathers on Tuesdays at running training sessions conducted by experienced coaches.

For more specific information and a schedule of events organized at the “PGE Narodowy” stadium, visit the stadium's website at: www.pgenarodowy.pl. You can also download a free mobile app called “PGE Narodowy”, available from both Google Play and the App Store.

9. Culinary Warsaw

Over the past few years, Warsaw has undergone a real revolution and become a popular culinary destination. The city is now full of many different eateries – from elegant, starred restaurants to unpretentious bistros and even old-style milk bars where soups, dumplings and cream cakes are the order of the day. Warsaw's fare has now come to the attention of the foreign media, such as Forbes and the authoritative blog HappyCow Vegan Guide, which ranked the Polish capital among the top vegan-friendly cities. Warsaw strongly promotes diversity – and the food here comes from all four corners of the globe. There are places offering cuisine from Ukraine, Georgia, Hungary and the Middle East, as well as vegan sushi which goes down extremely well with Warsaw's Japanese guests. These are just some of the local delicacies that you simply can't miss: pyzy – round potato dumplings with a meat stuffing, zurek – sour rye soup served with egg and white sausage, and wuzetka – a chocolate sponge cake with cream. Warsaw's food constantly amazes both tourists and residents alike with its creativity, high-quality ingredients and value for money.
